

Muden Juku Dublin Safeguarding statement

Due to the nature of the training the dojo does not accept members younger than 16 years of age. If a person under 18 years of age is in the dojo for any purpose, then the club undertakes the following commitments to ensuring their safety:

- Running the club in accordance with IMAC / DTA Child protection guidelines.
- Ensure all coaches and administrators are vetted by IMAC and through the national vetting unit.
- Ensure all coaches are appropriately qualified and have training in first aid.
- Adhere to the IMAC anti-bullying policy.

Members are expected to:

- Treat all members, instructors, and management with respect
- Support management / instructors in running the training sessions according to the IMAC guidelines.

If there are any concerns regarding the welfare of club members or they should be reported to the Designated Person
